The Censorship Committee has reviewed material sent to you. Pursuant to our review of this material, we conclude that the security of this institution will be at risk if the material is delivered to you within this institution because the material:

1. promotes violence, disorder or the violation of state or federal law including inflammatory material based on race or religion (photos or pictures which simply display firearms are not prohibited);
2. contains explicit sex acts, sadistic sex acts, bondage or sex acts in violation of state or federal law;
3. provides technical information on the design, construction, purchase or use of any instrument or device which could endanger institutional security or safety;
4. provides information on how to obtain any prohibited publication; or
5. is correspondence which appears to be written in code.

I am in receipt of your appeal dated 08-18-09 regarding your complaint your July 2009 publication of National Geographic was censored. You challenge this censorship and the regulation prohibiting you from having the poster. You feel they should just remove the poster and give you the rest of the magazine. You request the publication be returned to you.

Your complaint and pertinent information have been reviewed. This publication has been reviewed by the MDOC Legal Department. It has been determined the material contains unauthorized property which could endanger or threaten institutional security. Your requested remedy will not be forthcoming at this time.

Appeal denied.

RESPONSE AND JUSTIFICATION

Your IRR has been received and reviewed. You contend the censoring of the National Geographic Magazine May 2010 – Page 53 to 74 on the grounds it promotes violence is wrong.

A review of your complaint indicates that this item was censored appropriately and in accordance with IS 13-1.1 Offender Mail Procedures. At this time, you have failed to provide evidence to substantiate your claim that the item was wrongly confiscated.

IRR DENIED.

TO: All HU 3&4 Offenders
FROM: M. Wade
M. Wade, FUM
DATE: June 2, 2009
RE: Cell Arrangement Enforcement

Effective immediately, the cell arrangement must be strictly enforced. Everyone must be in compliance with the cell arrangement diagram located in the Offender Information Guide. The only exceptions granted must have an approval letter from the Functional Unit Manager or Medical.

There is also too much contraband on the walls. This is a reminder that General Offender Institutional Rules SOP 19-1.1 #20, "Each offender will be allowed to purchase (4) four hooks from canteen. Only 4 hooks per offender will be placed on the wall of the offender's assigned cell. Except for the hooks, offenders will not attach anything to walls, furniture, vents, windows, window sills, ledges, or tops of appliances unless authorized in writing," must be followed.

Any Items placed at the bottom of the cell doors are a fire and safety issue and will be considered contraband. No clothes lines are allowed.

GENERAL OFFENDER INSTITUTIONAL RULES

S-2

1. No communicating by telephone or mail with any staff member without authorization of the superintendent/designee with the exception of routine offender-to-staff correspondence pertaining to business.
2. Wearing of sunglasses inside buildings is prohibited except when there is a documented medical reason. Sunglasses will be worn outside in daylight hours only unless there is a documented medical reason.
3. No loitering or lingering during movement windows.
4. Failure to abide by any posted rule (s) is prohibited.
5. No wasting of resources. This includes, but is not limited to, letting water run, leaving light on, or leaving radios or appliances running in cell when not present or not needed.
6. Cell door will remain shut at all times in the housing unit with the exception of open windows. When an offender exits the cell, the cell door will remain secured until the next open window. If an offender needs to use the facilities, he may enter his cell but he cannot exit again until the next open window. It is the offender's responsibility to secure this cell door at all times.
7. No sitting on, or having feet on any furniture, walls, doors, or item not intended for that purpose, to include stairs and/or railings.
8. Failure to maintain a moderate tone of voice in any area is prohibited. This includes outdoors. (no yelling)
9. Failure to utilize headphones when operating a radio, television or tape/cd player is prohibited. Offenders must maintain volume so as not to be heard by others.
